

OUTSIDE NEWS FROM WIRE AND CABLE

London.—Kitty Marion and Clara Given, militant suffragets, were sentenced to three years in jail each for burning the Hurst Park race track grandstand June 8.

Paterson, N. J.—Patrick Quinlan, labor leader, sentenced to from two to seven years in state prison and fine of $500 for "inciting to riot" in silk strike.

Valencia, Pa.—Five children of Mrs. Howard Hays burned to death and Mrs. Howard badly injured in fire that destroyed the Hays home in Middlesex township.

Vienna.—Declaration of war against Bulgaria issued late last night by King Peter and Premier Pashitch from Serb army headquarters at Uskub.

Washington.—Rep. Henry T. Rainey denies he ever was friendly to National Association of Manufacturers as charged by Col. Mulhall.

Washington.—H. B. Martin of the Anti-Trust League admitted today that Lamar had drafted the resolution for the Stanley Steel Trust probe.

New York.—Robber with $50,000 worth of jewelry in his hands, surprised in home of H. L. Haas at Long Beach, but made his getaway, jewels and all.

Champaign, Ill.—Justice Armstrong ruled it no crime to knock out man who called your wife a liar and dismissed Anton Roland.

St. Louis.—Mabel C. and Fannie Thorpe, striking telephone operators, arrested "for talking back to a patrolman."

Duluth.—Bull moose lumbered into town from northern forest and escaped after wrecking several lamp posts.

London.—Miss Gwyneth Beabe, who sued law society to force it to admit her to bar, defeated. No women lawyers in Britain for some time.

Cassel, Germany.—Official censor has barred "The Easiest Way," in which Frances Starr played for several seasons in America.

Passaic, N. J.—James Holderson, 18, suffered breaking of both arms in runaway. Told physicians to amputate, but leave stumps long enough for him to beat bass drum.

New York.—Vincent Astor will serve on American Roumanian-Jewish emancipation committee, the object of which is to relieve the 250,000 Jews in Roumania.

New York.—Police Sergt. P. J. Duffy found guilty of grafting by supreme court jury. Second trial. First jury disagreed.

Jacksonville, Fla.—Mayor Van Swearing, newly elected, has called on women to quit wearing narrow petticoatless skirts.

Douglas, Ariz.—Guasabos and Granados, in Sonora, Mex., destroyed by earthquake. 3,000 living in tents.

New York.—Police court magistrates today began taking finger prints of everyone found guilty of intoxication.

West Hampton, L. I.—Sam Stevens Sands, stepson of Wm. K. Vanderbilt, killed in auto crash.

Kansas City.—Nine balloons will race from here Friday to decide which three shall represent America in Gordon Bennett race in France.

Beaudette, Minn.—69 foxes, $60,000 worth, the winter catch of the Indians of the far north, passed through here today.

Valdez, Alaska.—Parts of human skeleton found on Valdez glacier believed that of Dr. Logan, lost in snowstorm in winter of '98-'99.

Atlanta, Ga.—Ollie Taylor, 13, who has served two years in reformatory for stealing bottle of pop, released on four months' parole.

Calumetville, Wis.—Norman, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schumacher, drowned in milk can which contained only four inches of water.

Detroit.—Harry J. Pierson is dead.